“ I see RDN as a connector, an organization that knows and listens to people and communities within the social-economic space. As Malcolm Gladwell, author of The Tipping Point has put it, a “connector is someone who knows an impressive number of people,” more people than the average person knows. I see RDN as a positive leverage on sustainability, shared identity, equity, and collaboration for English-speaking communities in Québec. RDN connects people with people, financial resources, mentors, advisors, and government resources. ”

RDN would like to thank the Secrétariat aux relations avec les Québécois d'expression anglaise for its financial support.
