- Sign up for free: Drivers and passengers don't pay any registration or membership fee.
- Daily commute: Find a carpool buddy for your daily commute at no cost.
- Long distance rides: Post or book a ride everywhere in Canada and the United States.
- Online payment: Book and pay your seat online for long distance rides.

Next steps

The Sweet Spot

- Proximity
- Appropriate routes
- Timeliness
- Reasonable cost
- Maybe a mini-van will do?

Next Steps

- Steering Committee
- Needs assessment / feasibility study / business plan
- Government participation – yes, no, somewhat?
- Structure for service (type of social enterprise)
- Financing
